

Sociology of Giving (Published in association with Theory, Culture & Society)

We all give and receive gifts. But few of us reflect on the risks and uncertainties inherent to this form. For example, to give means to acquire power, to effect a symbolic exchange, to initiate ties and alliances, to convey social messages to others and to classify our own status. Gift-giving is also a device to register honour and shame, to show solidarity, to equalize and to create intimacy. This fascinating volume looks at the ambivalence of gift-giving; contemporary gift-giving, its motives, occasions and its rules; examines `sacrifice, `food-sharing and `gift-giving as those basic institutions upon which symbolic orders of `traditional society rely; and considers the historical invention of hospitality, paving the
