

New Jersey Artists Through Time (America Through Time)

Not since 1964 has a book been written on New Jersey art history. This ground-breaking volume features many of the entire states painters, sculptors, photographers, printmakers, illustrators, and cartoonists, and celebrates New Jerseys 350th anniversary, 2014. Although many artists are gone now, their legacies are still vibrant; the ones who are working and exhibiting here are providing the important legacies of the future in this comprehensive overview of a wealth of artwork. How exciting that many of these artists are known nationally and internationally! You will get to know them, discover more about them, and you will be delighted to know that New Jerseys art world stands tall and most proudly between New York and Philadelphia. Readers of all ages finally have a treasury and inspiration that promises to keep New Jersey brimming with art for years to come.
